for cardiovascular disease and diabetes; setting out a clear strategy to monitor activity wasn’t straightforward though.